

Conflict an Opportunity?

I hate conflict!

Everyone at our family Christmas gathering acted like nothing was wrong. But Uncle Bob refused to come because his son Roger and daughter-in-law Barb were invited. Roger and Barb didn't show up either for fear his parents would be there. What a way to celebrate the coming of the Prince of Peace!

Sharon wondered what she could do. She hated conflict as much as the next person, but she hated peace-breaking and peace-faking even more.

Then Sharon attended Go and Be Reconciled: What Does This Mean? She learned that conflict provides opportunities for the peace-maker. Putting what she learned into practice, she talked separately to her cousin and uncle.

The next spring at an anniversary celebration, Uncle Bob, Roger, and Barb were all there, sitting together at the table. Everyone took notice. Sharon quietly thanked Jesus for reconciliation and the opportunities she learned from the seminar.

Go and Be Reconciled: What Does This Mean? Men's Retreat

February 16-18, 2018
Lutheran Island Camp
45011 230th Street
Henning, Minnesota 56551

If you hate conflict, you can do more than peace-faking or peace-breaking. Join us in this Bible study seminar as we learn how to cultivate lifestyles of reconciliation.

Go and Be Reconciled: What Does This Mean?
presented by Ambassadors of Reconciliation

Men of Christ Men's Retreats

Being the men God wants us to be.

Go and Be Reconciled: What Does This Mean?

A Bible study seminar by Ambassadors of Reconciliation

Ambassadors
of Reconciliation™

What You Will Learn

- How God empowers you for doing what you cannot do on your own.
- How to admit wrongs with godly sorrow.
- How to forgive and experience healing.
- How to model reconciliation with your children and others.
- How to be a peacemaker in your home, workplace, school, and church.

Date & Location

Friday, Feb. 16, 6:00 pm through
Sunday, Feb. 18, 11:30 am
Lutheran Island Camp
45011 230th Street
Henning, MN 56551

Time & Cost

Registration: Friday 6:00 pm
Meals & lodging provided!
Registration Fee: $125.00.
Commuter Rate: $90
Scholarships available

Registration

Register: Call the LIC office: (218) 583-2905
On-line at www.islandcamp.org
Fill out this form and mail to Lutheran Island Camp.
Submit fee made out to Lutheran Island Camp or pay when you arrive.
Name: _____ No. of people _____
Address: _____

Phone: _____
Email: _____