Henning, Minnesota

September 11-17, 2011

The Ministry of Reconciliation

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us (2 Corinthians 5:18-20, NIV).

Christians often struggle to live, proclaim and cultivate lifestyles of reconciliation in our relationships with others. Establishing a Reconciliation Ministry can help.

Training Leaders for Reconciliation Ministry

Reconciliation is not an event, but a way of life. Equip and assist members, staff & students in living lifestyles of reconciliation. Appoint reconcilers and train them to serve in a Reconciliation Ministry by:

- Teaching – equipping the saints in biblical peacemaking for lifestyles of reconciliation;
- Coaching – guiding individuals to apply biblical approaches in specific conflicts;
- Mediating – assisting two or more people in conflict to reconcile and resolve their conflict;
- Arbitrating – deciding substantive matters through a just and fair hearing.

Who Should Attend?

Church Reconciler Training prepares all leaders – pastors, teachers, elders, administrators, parents – to guide people through conflicts.

This training is especially helpful for a church's reconcilers. The church is meant to be a place where its members can seek help in applying God's message of reconciliation to their personal conflicts. A former participant shared: "When I first learned biblical peacemaking, I thought it would change my ministry. It did much more – it changed my life!"
